

Council members in attendance were Bob Decusky, Laura Faust, Janice Wasser, Bill Rudolph, Gary Schell, Gail Becker, Wayne Mensinger, Joan Mensinger, Clarissa Geary, and Pastor Jay. Also in attendance were Judy Rudolph and Marion Chupasco. Pastor Jay opened the meeting with Prayer. Members of the RVFC were in attendance to discuss and explain their plans for the upcoming Schuylkill County Fireman's Convention. They asked for help to prepare and distribute hot dogs to attendees. Several members volunteered. The secretary's minutes of the June meeting were read and approved with 2 corrections. Treasurers' reports were given and filed for audit.

Pastor's Report: 1 wedding, 1 funeral, 1 private counseling, Prayer chats every Thursday and Synod and Mission District Zoom meetings.

Office report was reviewed and added the boiler was checked and serviced on June 30.

Committee reports:

Social Ministry: 25 packages were assembled for Lutheran World Relief. As of now "We Care" packages will continue. The Beef Bracirole takeout dinner is scheduled for September 9.

Capital Campaign: A phone conference was held. They will finish the brochure and pledge cards so they are in place when the campaign begins.

Think Tank: Bob Llewellyn is posting night time sky pieces on FB. Movie night is set for August 7 at 8:30. A letter has been sent out to vendors asking for opinions on options to hold or cancel the fall festival.

Property: Downspout on church needs repair. Shed also needs attention. The water heater in the church had to be replaced. The falling of the plaster in the front of the church continues to be a problem.

Town Social: Town Social cancelled for this year.

Old Business: It was decided to sell burgers, baked goods and water at the Fireman's convention. Outside worship services will continue through August. Pastor Jay thanked the Decusky's for use of the sound system which is working out well for the services. Ways of having communion were discussed and taping of the services will continue. The church's website is up and running so we will scale back on email information and instead post it on the website.

New Business: Scout Committee will use pavilion on the 2nd Tuesday of each month for meetings. Discussed the Boy Scout spaghetti dinner, the number of people to be allowed in the church for a wedding, and Boscov Day WED, OCT 14.

Meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.
Joan Mensinger, secretary

Secretary's Report: Was approved as read.

Treasurers' Reports: were sent to audit

Pastor's Report: funerals 1, weddings 1 (outside in York county), private counseling 1, Pastor Jay has been doing zoom chats with the Synod, the Mission District, and the National Church. The Think Tank sent an e-mail asking peoples opinion if we should have Fall Festival. The Fireman's Convention is still on for August.

Office Report: Available for review.

Old Business: The cupcake sale and food fundraiser were discussed. The hoagie sale is up in the air. The air conditioning/heating unit has been installed. We are waiting on the air purifier to be installed. Pastor Jay and members of the congregation continue to stay in contact with people through social media. A lot of our communication has been through the computer. The website is up and running. An e-mail was sent out with the link. Everyone is welcome to view the web site at ringtownlutheran.org. Pastor Jay is still doing FaceBook We will continue to send out important messages via e-mail. There still are some mailings being done for those who do not have e-mail. Worship services are still being conducted outside and alternating recordings. The thought is to continue with this for the rest of the summer. He is investigating ways to give communion safely.

New Business: Larry and Billie Jo Grohol along with Elizabeth Harner have requested to transfer into the Brandonville church.

Meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.
Marie Clark, secretary
